GIANTS WIN IN TENTH INNING

Great Pitchers Battle Between Matthewson and Plank.

Shibe Park, Philade... Oct. 8.—It was Philadelphia's turn to pay tribute to King Swat today and the feat was performed to a turn. Showers were spilled from the sky and the Weather Bureau probably in sympathy with Clark Griffith and his Senators who finished behind the Acheltics, generally conspired to crab proceedings by permitting heavy clouds to linger where the sun should have shone.

Mere dampness, however, could not stop the Atheltics fans out for the second game of the world's series. A cold mist descended throughout the night on about 1,000 followers of Connie Macks sluggers who waited patiently outside Shibe Park for the gates to open this morning. The misty wet by sticking persistently on the job, soaked through clothing. The vicinity of the ball park became a choice loafing place for pneumonia gems, but the watchers could not be crowded out.

At 8 o'clock this morning there were 4,000 persons in line. All were waiting for a chance to purchase unreserved seats in the bleachers or were ready to sell their places. A heavy mist was falling, and higher prices were asked for places in the line which were sheltered by the fence.

As soon as the mists began to fall yesterday the playing field was covered, and was in good condition today. There was little doubt that the game would be played, providing conditions did not become worse. The mist was heavy, however, and there appeared to be the greatest danger of a real rain.

When the Giants began to circulate about their hotel today it was with the realization that they have a real job ahead of them. McGraw wanted yesterday's game. He must have today's or face an unsurmountable task. With this in mind Matty is expected to be called upon to lead the Harlem army to the squaring up point of the series. Marquard's fast shoots on a dark day could not rest with Matty's brain and control to head on the on rushing hosts. Jeff was the second choice for the assignment.

The Atheltics were in the highest spirits today. They had answered the question as to whether superior pitching could offset slugging. They are confident that every man has his batting eye with him, and expect to stop the slugging Mackites, so it must flay anything the Giant pitchers have to offer.

In the regular order of things Plank would be the pitching choice of Connie Mack today, but there was a lurking suspicion that a switch might be made at the last minute. "Bullet Joe" Bush, the speed mer... of the Atheltics, would have ... helping him on a dark ... has

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Fifty negroes and as many white persons almost caused a riot in the village of Romeo, near Joliet, Ill., yesterday afternoon, when the negroes attacked the wooden jail and liberated Lula Gibson, a negress, who had been arrested for drunkenness. In the fight one negro was killed and the little jail was demolished.

The coroners jury which is investigating the death of Miss Ella Lawrence Warfield, who died at her farm near Sykesville, Carroll county, Md., the night of July 24, today continued its sessions. Chemists will submit an analysis of the viscera of Miss Warfeld, whose body was exhumed about ten days ago. It was said to contain cyanide of potassium, a bottle of the poison having been found on her bed when she died.

The first complication with any foreign government over the new tariff law came yesterday, when Germany lodged a protest with the State Department against a one-sided interpretation of the 5 per cent preferential clause of the law. The German government does not suggest how the uncertainty that has arisen over the ambiguity of this clause should be settled, but there is intimation that Germany will expect to be consulted. In fact, the German protest was interpreted as a suggestion that the meaning of the clause ought to be submitted to arbitration.

The Greek slave and other nude figures in the National Corcoran Gallery of Art in Washington, will not be relegated to the storeroom because they wear no clothes. This is emphatically stated by the members of the Corcoran Comission, who deny the story that nude figures were to be barred from the exhibition in the gallery. Miss Emily Millard, secretary of the gallery, said tersely that such a proposition was "all rot." Miss Millard said that the trustees have not even taken the matter under advisement. "There are some people so unappreciative of art," she said, "that they actually think we ought to put a Parisian gown on the Venus de Milo.

Fire which started Sunday in the great oil tanks of the Standard Oil Company at San Diego, Cal., was still burning yesterday. Two of the tanks have blown up. The side of the 1,200,000 gallon crude oil tank blew out and a wave of flame rolled the length of a block. At the same time a burning gasoline tank exploded, sending blazing gasoline into the bay. The Standard Company's large warehouse was consumed.

One man was killed, another seriously injured and two women were slightly cut during a four-cornered fight with knives in a small cabin at Green Bay, Wis., yesterday. Margo Walowitz, of Milwaukee, bled to death from the score of wounds he received, while Mike Janice is in a critical condition. Miss Conkovitz and Miss Annie Janice were slightly injured The fight started when Walowitz attempted to force his way into Janic's home. All four participants were armed with long sharp knives

WAR OVER THE CURRENCY BILL

Senate Leaders Called in Conference by President Wilson.

MAY CALL A CAUCUS.

Executive Will Use All Reasonable Measures in Order to Cause Line-up of Democrats.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The war over the currency bill which has been predicted since it was announced the President would try to force it through Congress in the special session, is fairly on.

President Wilson has determined to use all reasonable pressure to bring Senate Democrats into line to accept the measure to which he has given endorsement. State leaders are today conferring with reference to the calling of a caucus and the consideration of the currency measure as a partisan one.

Meantime, bankers assembled at Boston, at the meeting of the American Bankers's Association, are voicing their disapproval of the bill in large numbers. Country bankers are opposing the bill and many of them who are attending the Boston meeting are declaring they will not enter the proposed system. Following the meeting of the American Bankers' Association, a large number of the bankers are expected to come to Washington and lay before the Senate Banking and Currency Committee their objections to the bill.

For the last forty-eight hours President Wilson has been calling in Senate leaders and urging them to hasten the passage of the bill. It is understood that he wants it made a party measure. He thinks the Senate democrats ought to caucus on the bill, it is said,if it cannot be hurried along otherwise.

The three Democrats on the banking committee who are opposed to the bill are Senators Hitchcock, Reed and O'Gorman. Thus far, none of the three shows signs of yielding.

However, there is a lot of opposition to the bill among Senate Democrats who are not on the committee. If the bill is thrown into caucus there will be a big fight there over it.

During the past year extensive repairs have been made to the big store. New departments have been added and the whole building has been overhauled and prepared to take care of the enormous business the Swans enjoy.

The opening will not be for the ladies alone as the men will enjoy viewing the newest things in the men's store which carries the largest stock in the city of furnishings for men and boys.

Very attractive prices will prevail during the week and will no doubt result in a record-breaking business.

VOLCANOES IN ERUPTION.

Ashes From Aleutian Peak Cover Decks of Vessel.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 8.—The brigantine Harriet G., Capt. J. A. McInnes,which arrived yesterday after a summer spent in Bering Sea, brought word that volcanoes of the Aleutian range are in violent eruption. Ashes from the peaks covered rigging and decks, carpeted the ground of the Alaskan peninsula and spread a great smoky pall over the waters throughout the summer, members of the crew said.

Mount Kaymal also has sent forth volcanic cinders.

"During the summer we were anchored in Port Holden, some 200 miles from Unimak," said Captain McInnes. "The grass on shore was covered with snow, we were surprised on the way down to find the snow covered with ashes. For 40 miles down the coast we traveled under the smoke cloud."

MINISTER ACQUITTED.

Rev. W. L. Wine Charged With Assault on De Witt Herndon.

Manassas, Va., Oct. 8.—On the third day of the October trem of the Circuit Court of Prince William county held here the trial of De Witt Herndon against Rev. W. L. Dine, both of Fayman, was begun, and ended after a court session which lasted throughout the day and until 8 o'clock last evening. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

This trial was the result of a wrangle between these two parties, in which Herndon, the plaintiff, was assaulted with a wooden stake by Mr. Wine. Herndon received a bad scalp wound, which rendered him unconscious for twenty-four hours, during which time and later his condition was considered grave. Much interest was manifested at the trial, and the courtroom was crowded during the whole proceedings.

RACE ISSUE IN THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Question to be Threshed Out At Conference in New York.

DIVERSITY OF VIEWS.

May Have Negro Bishops —No "Episcopal Pope" — Six Negro Choirs at Gathering This Week.

New York, Oct. 8.—An unusually large gathering of men in the garb of the clergy was to be seen in the lobbies of New York hotels yesterday. The occasion is the 44th general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of America, which formally opened today in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, which will continue in session for three weeks and possibly longer.

Church dignitaries and laymen representing the dioceses in the United States and over-sea territories practically all arrived yesterday and took up at least an informal discussion issues vital to the church, which will be thrashed out during the convention. The church gathering includes nearly 8,000 interested persons. The convention itself embraces 715 representative men from all parts of the world and the legislation which they will pass will be in behalf of 1,000,000 communicants.

One of the topics to come before the convention for discussion will be the question, "What Shall be Done With the Colored Brother?" The subject is to be brought before the convention in a memorial asking that negro bishops be placed over specially defined dioceses in the South, where negro churchmen are to be found in great numbers.

Bishop Greer intends to have it thoroughly thrashed out in a special conference to be held Sunday night, October 19, in the Cathedral, in the presence of the entire delegation. Addressess will be made by members of Congress, and six vested choirs composed entirely of negroes, will sing a special service.

Numerous parties inside the church are already at work. One party is sending broadcast a statement of Bishop Spalding, of Utah, attacking the United States Steel Corporation, in which he is quoted as saying that "this corporation employs in China 31,000 natives, paying them only 2 cents a day."

The change from the present structure of the church, dividing the country into eight provinces under metropolitans or archbishops, who shall select from their number a primate, is another matter which is likely to stir up discussion. Opponents of this measure say this will create "an Episcopal Pope," and they would rather stay as they are.

Still another matter to come up makes the creation of an officer never before operative in any church. This is the bishop of the army and navy. There are now so many Episcopal clergymen serving as chaplains in both branches of the service that the general convention of 1910 was memorialized to create a special diocese for men. The commission appointed then will report to the convention about to sit, and it is expected that favorable action will be taken.

Twelve hundred members of the Women's Auxiliary which holds its session coincident with the general convention, are already in the city for their meeting.

The delegation from the diocese of Virginia is as follows:

Rev. William Meade Clark, D. D., rector of St. James Church, Richmond; Rev. E. E. Goodwin, Ashland; Rev. William D. Smith, Winchester; and Rev. Angus Crawford, Episcopal Seminary, Alexandria, churchmen; Judge R. Carter Scott and P. H. Mayo, Richmond; Judge J. K. M. Norton, Alexandria, and Rosewell Page, Hanover county, laymen.

Both Virginia deelgations will be able to report to the general convention that they have taken up the work of the social service commission. which has the hearty indorsement of the Church. Rev. F. Ernest Warren, rector of Meade Memorial Episcopal Church, South Richmond, and Rev. W. Russell Bowie, D. D., rector of St. Paul's Church, Richmond, are the chairman of the commissions in their respective dioceses. Its purpose is to investigate and ameliorate conditions among the poor of the diocese.

SCHOOL CHILDREN STRIKE.

Several Hundred in Michigan Strike Zone Refuse to Study.

Calumet, Mich., Oct. 8.—The sympathetic strike of school children in the Keweenaw county copper strike district spread yesterday morning and five hundred refused to study. The Ahmek, New Allonez and Mohawk schools are affected. A special meeting of the school board was called to deal with the situation. It is said the compulsory school attendance law will be invoked and that prosecutions of parents will follow if the children are not sent back to school. This morning four hundred of the striking pupils paraded at Ahmek.

The parents of the striking children demand the removal of the truant officer who investigated stories that the children had been threatened by mine guards and found them to be untrue. The school board, however, is determined to retain that offical.

Strike breakers are being imported by various mines. Seventy-five arrived last night for the Quincy, and twenty this morning for the Calumet and Hecla.

Automobiles are still being fired upon in the Keweenaw district. The machine of a Calumet man was struck last night, the bullet shattering the windshield.

SCALDED BY HOT SOUP.

Woman Hurls Boiling Pot at Another Woman and Baby.

Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—Mrs. Mary Kominski, 25 years old, and her eight-months-old infant, Stanislaus, were badly scalded when Mrs. Anthonea Poltasi, 23 years old, of the same address, hurled a potful of boiling vegetable soup at her. Mrs. Kominski on Moday prepared for supper a potful of vegetable soup, watching it boil on the sove while she was holding her infant, when Mrs. Poltasi entered the room and glanced into the pot. Mrs. Poltasi declared, it is said, that more vegetables should have been put in it.

An argument followed, during which, it is said, she picked up the pot and dashed it against Mrs. Kominski. Mrs. Kominski's face, hands, and breast were scalded severely, and her child suffered in a less severe degree. They were taken to the Frankford Hospital, after which Special Policeman Tyson, of the Fifteenth district, arrested Mrs. Poltasi.

Episcopal Church, South Richmond, and Rev. W. Russell Bowie, D. D., rector of St. Paul's Church, Richmond, are the chairman of the commissions in their respective dioceses. Its purpose is to investigate and ameliorate conditions among the poor of the diocese.

FILIPINOS DO NOT WANT FREEDOM

Natives, it is Said, Prefer Suzerainty of United States.

ENJOY PROTECTION.

Present Conditions Agreeable to Law Abiding Elements in Islands—Danger in Independence.

Washington, Oct. 8.—That opposition to President Wilson's policy of paving the way to early independence for the Philippine Islands may come from sections of the native population itself, is the view held here by some army officers and others who have had opportunity to study conditions in the isl... first hand. According to the... ervers the suzerainty of the Un... States is prized highly in many ... uarters of the islands because of the protection if affords the peaceably inclined citizens a...inst the war like raids of the interior tribes.

The vigorous manner in which the United States troops recently quelled the insurrection among the savage tribes of the Island of Jolo, who had been exercising a reign of terrror over their peaceful neighbors, is pointed to as an instance in the way in which the United States authorities have been protecting the law-abiding elements.

That Philippine independence would have a rocky road to travel if left to the guardianship of the natives themselves it is said, without hesitation. The multiplicity of tribes and their conflicting ideas of religion and government, would, say the less optimistic friends of the administration, make any concerted action by the Filipinos well nigh impossible.

Realizing this, it is said, some of the most influential among the natives view with alarm the preparations of President Wilson for early independence for the islands.

At all events the Wilson policy, as conveyed to the people of the islands yesterday in the speech of Governor-General Harrison at Manila, has attracted much attention, inasmuch as it represents the first definite statement from the White House as to what the Philippine program of the government is. It is understood on good authority that the passage in the speech promising the immediate selection of Filipinos to constitute the majority of the Philippine commission, was dictated by the President himself and incorporated by Governor Harrison into his address.

KILLED BY A HORSE.

Danville, Va., Oct. 8.—Charlie Price, 14 years old, son of William Price, a horse dealer, of Ruffin, N. C., was playing with his father's saddle horse in a field on Friday when the animal kicked him in the stomach. He was apparently not hurt and walked three miles to his home. Later he began to suffer acute pain and was put to bed. On Saturday morning he died, and a doctor who was called in when the youth's serious predicament became known, declared that his liver had been ruptured by the blow.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

MARSHALL PRAISES Y. M. C. A.

Vice President Speaks at Dedication at Petersburg.

Petersburg, Va., Oct. 8—Vice President Marshall delivered yesterday afternoon the address at the laying of the cornerstone of the new Young's Men's Christian Association Building now in course of erection on Union street, on the site of the old High school building.

Mr. Marshall spoke to one thousand persons and his speech was received with applause.

The stone was laid by Blandford Lodge of Masons. Vice-President Marshall was then introduced by Mayor Cabaniss.

The Vice-President paid a tribute to Virginia and Virginians, and in his connection spoke in eulogistic terms of Walter A. Watson, congressman from the Fourth district.

He said he did not want to get the church into politics, but he wanted to get the politicians in the church. He declared that he was not a preacher, but plain, old-fashioned Hoosier Democrat, but if a man is not a Christian he is as apt to go crooked as to go straight. Mr. Marshall spoke [illegible] principles of making men [illegible] that it was through the [illegible] of the Young Men's Christi[illegible]ation that the work cou[illegible]mplished.

The building is a four story and basement structure, with exterior of ornamental brick. The basement floor contains the business mens' room, boy's room, a game room, bowling alley, swimming pool and heating plant.

The main floor contains men's and boy's club rooms, living and reading rooms, offices for the secretary and physical director and gymnasium, with stage. The building will cost $75,000.

PITTSBURG MAN HELD.

Alleged to be Implicated in Diamond Robbery.

Staunton, Va., Oct. 8.—Traced through several states by a Pittsburg detective, M. L. Carr, a man of evident culture and refinement, claiming to be an A .B. and Ph. D. and a representative of the Calumet Institute, Chicago, has been arrested here on a charge of skipping a board bill at the Colonial Hotel, Altoona, Pa.

Detective Reed. who traced the man here, states, however, that he is wanted in connection with a big diamond robbery.

Many Attend State Fair.

Richmond, Oct. 8.—The misty foggy atmosphere—surcharged with the tang of winter—that enveloped Richmond yesterday did not deter the thousands who had set their head on seeing the great State fair, nor did the weather detract one whit from their enjoyment. It never attained even the dignity of a drizzle and a great majority of the multitude showed fine scorn of the elements by carrying rain coats on their arms.

The machinery of the big fair was in good working order yesterday and the program from start to finish proceeded without a hitch or mishap. It is estimated by the fair management that at least 12,000 people passed through the gates and this number would have been increased easily to 20,000 but for unfavorable weather conditions.

KILLED WRONG MAN.

White Man Shot to Death by Mulatto Who is Still at Large.

Martinsville, Va., Oct. 8.—J. William Bryant, a white man, was shot and instantly killed by Henry Scott, a young mulatto, at the home of a negro named Bud Foster, near Sanville in the western part of Henry county on Sunday night. Scott is at large in spite of the efforts made by the constabuary to arrest him.

Bryant was with a score of other men at Foster's home, and it is said liquor was consumed. The mulatto, it is declared, began an argument with a farmer named Martin with the regard to the misuse of a dog. The conversation became heated and Scott secured a shot gun and said he would kill Martin. When he returned he opened fire at the man he supposed to be Martin who was standing with his back to him. It proved to be the wrong man, however, and Bryant fell mortally wounded. In the confusion that followed Scott managed to slip away through the country while Bryant was placed in a buggy. An effort was made to get Bryant to his home but he succumbed in the vehicle before it had gone many yards.

SCHOOL OF EQUITATION.

Colonel Gaston Wants Army Riding School Moved to Virginia.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Virginia's "horse atmosphere" is needed to make the Army School of Equitation a success, in the opinion of Colonel Joseph A. Gaston, commandant of the mounted service school at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Therefore, Colonel Gaston, in his annual report, made public at the War Department yesterday, recommends that the equitation school be transferred bodily from Fort Riley to Warrenton, Va.

"The climate of Virginia," the report says, "is not subject to such violent changes as are found at Fort Riley. It is in the vicinity of blooded horses, polo grounds, cross-country riding clubs, &c., and students would be in touch with the stables of wealthy men, who take great interest in equitation, and keep everything about their stables up to a high state of efficiency."

Colonel Gaston recommended that the Bakers and Cooks' school and the Farriers' and Horseshoers' school, both of which are essentially for enlisted men, be kept at Fort Riley, where the location is central.

KILLS SELF WITH SHOTGUN.

STRUGGLE BETWEEN CAPITAL AND LABOR.

Serious conditions exist in Dublin, Ireland, according to dispatches from that city.

After five weeks of the bitter struggle between capital and labor, the city's population, always on the border line of starvation, is now facing acute famine conditions. Twenty thousands families, or 100,000 persons, representing a third of the inhabitants, are feeling the pinch of hunger.

Pitiable scenes are witnessed in the streets where, in merciless downpours of rain, swarms of gaunt, barefooted children are openly begging pennies to buy bread. Bread lines of famished boys and girls wait a dole of Irish stew and stale bread at certain points and huddle together for warmth. When they receive food, they sit on the nearest doorstep to consume it.

Practically the whole food supply of famine-stricken thousands is derived from cargoes sent from England by sympathizing trade unions. Two food ships have already been sent, and another is being prepared. The British Miners' Federation has voted $5,000 for relief and promises another $5,000 weekly while the trouble lasts.

Meanwhile there is little prospect of an end to the fight.

SOLD COW TO SEE WORLD'S SERIES.

The world's series of baseball games are attracting more attention in the United States than anything else at present. The tariff and currency bills have been cast into partial eclipse, as it is said many of the country's lawmakers have quietly left Washington and joined the fans.

The Olympic games absorbed the attention of ancient Greece, and while yesterday was not a dies non, the United States was flooded with extra editions of newspapers, and in many places little else than baseball was discussed. The fever spreads more and more every year.

Adolph Deuscher, aged 16, blue-eyed, and apparently innocent, but a decidedly persistent youth, informed his mother some days ago that he proposed to leave their farm at West Liverpool, N J., on the day of the opening game of the world's series and go to New York. "And I'm going to see that game, too," declared Adolph

"How will you see it?" asked his mother. "You have no money, and if you did, what would you do in New York? You don't know anything about the city. No, my son, you will remain on the farm and work that day as usual."

Arising at dawn yesterday, Mrs. Deuscher called to her son, but there was no response. After sunrise Mrs. Deuscher went to the pasture to let down the bars for Belle, a Jersey cow, to go to the barn. There was no Belle in the pasture, and tracks showed she had been led from the pasture to the pike. Mrs. Deuscher quickly came to the conclusion that Adolph was planning to sell Belle to attend the baseball game. Never was the old bay mare harnessed faster than Mrs. Deuscher harnessed her, and she started down the pike on a gallop, the woman lashing her on.

The mare was well spent when she galloped into St. Cloud, where Mrs. Deuscher arrived two hours behind her son and the cow. Then down the mountain Mrs. Deuscher drove to West Orange, where the woman was told that her Jersey had been sold for $75 to a butcher. After getting the $75 Adolph went forth to array himself in fitting clothes for a world series and he succeeded. He renewed his garments from shoes to hat and then started for New York on a Lackawanna train, leaving town just about the time his mother and the old bay mare arrived.

"He's dressed up for the occasion," the police chief told Mrs. Deuscher.

"And he'll be undressed for another event," remarked the mother. "Just wait till I get him home."

EVERY SUFFRAGAN SHOULD CAST HIS VOTE.

The entire Democratic State ticket will be elected without opposition on November 4. Henry C. Stuart will be the first governor of Virginia to go into office without opposition either in his own party or from some other party.

Neither the Republicans nor the Progressives has put a state ticket in the field this year. The election, from the present prospects, will be a purely perfunctory occasion, save in those counties where there is Republican opposition to the Democratic candidates for the House of Delegates. In some sections where the parties are about evenly balanced, this will lead to spirited contests.

As in a majority of cases the Democratic candidates will have no opposition, there is a likelihood of some voters becoming apathetic and waiving the privilege of casting their ballots. The Gazette has ever insisted that every member of the Democratic party should vote, even when it is known that the nominees of the organization have a walkover. It is hoped, therefore that there will be a large turn out next month as the gentlemen whose names are on the ticket will be encouraged by the rolling up of large votes.

GOV. MANN MAKES ADDRESS.

Principal Speaker at Fertilizer Men's Convention.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 8—Governor Wm. Hodges Mann, of Virginia, got a big reception when he addressed the 700 delegates attending the National Fertilizers' Association convention at Old Point yesterday. The Governor after welcoming the delegates to Virginia in the morning, delivered a second address in the afternoon. He said in years to come the fertilizing industry would be one of the greatest in the world. The delegates spent most of yesterday in sightseeing and saw 1,200 men from Fort Myer start on an 18-mile walk in the country.

FACES THE PENITENTIARY.

Washington County Farmer Convicted of Killing Man.

Bristol, Va., Oct. 8.—Peter Shelley, the aged Washington county farmer, who stabbed Leander Short to death less than a year ago, now stands face to face with the Virginia penitentiary. He was given nine years by an Abingdon jury, and the impression is that he is not likely to escape the penalty. Shelley, who is past 60 years of age, was in a quarrel with a neighbor over a small account, and when Short stepped between the men he received a fatal knife thrust in his abdomen. He died in a few hours. Impressed with the seriousness of the deed, Shelley left the county and located in the State of Oregon, where he was located later.

Judge Harrison Endorsed.

Winchester, Va., Oct. 8.—The Winchester Bar Association yesterday adopted resolutions endorsing Judge Thomas Walter Harrison of Winchester, of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit, for election by the General Assembly next January to the Supreme Court of Appeals of the State, to succeed Judge Buchanan who will retire.

Speaker Richard Evelyn Byrd spoke on the general conditions in Virginia and urged the peculiar fitness of Judge Harrison for the Supreme bench.

SYNOD OF VIRGINIA.

Will Hold Session in Danville October 21st to 25th.

Danville, Va., Oct. 8.—One of Danville's most important religious events of the year will be held in this city from October 21 to 25th, when the Synod of Virginia comprising the States of Virginia, Maryland, West Virginia and District of Columbia, will assemble for its annual conference. Between 250 and 300 delegates are expected at this meeting of the Presbyterians and they will be cared for in the homes of the members of the Presbyterian Church. The session will be the one hundred and twenty-six in the States history and three daily sessions will be held in the First Presbyterian Church, the first one at 9 o'clock A. M., and the night session at 8 o'clock.

There are some 300 Presbyterian ministers in the territory embraced by the Virginia Synod. Each church in this territory is entitled to send to the Synod two delegates, the pastor of the church and the ruling elder.

The Rev. Dr. Welford, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church at Newport News, will open the conference. As soon as his address has been delivered the work of electing a moderator and clerk will take place.

COOL HEADS AVERT LYNCHING.

Save Man's Life After Rope and Rifles Were All Ready.

Shreveport, La., Oct. 8.—After barely escaping lynching at the hands of a mob at Myrtis, La., near here, when citizens learned that he beaten his 8-months-old baby, Hubbard Lee, a white mill employe was put in jail Saturday night. According to reports reaching here from Myrtis, the mob had a rope aroun Lee's neck then decided to shoot him. Cooler heads are said to have prevailed and Lee was severely whipped and told to leave the county.

He went to Rodessa, a small town nearby. The story of what the mob had done at Myrtis followed him into town in a short time and he was arrested. An officer brought him here for safe keeping.

WILD BEAST CHASE.

Animals Escaped From Menagerie Causing Reign of Terror.

Vienna, Oct. 8.—The destruction of flocks and herds in the mountains of Styria, Austria, by a pack of wolves, lions and hyenas, which escaped from a menagerie last month, has been so enormous that the Austrian government has ordered the organization of an expedition to kill the wild beasts.

The action of the government was taken on the petition of a number of terrified Styrian mountaineers, who appealed personally to the Emperor Francis Joseph for assistance. His Majesty directed the ministry of the interior to report to him personally on the best way of exterminating the animals. The government immediately offered a reward of $750 for the head of the lioness and smaller rewards for those of her cubs and the other animals, and sent out a squad of government foresters to trap them.

TRUTH TRIUMPHS.

Alexandria Citizens Testify for the Public Benefit.

A truthful statement of an Alexandria citizen, given in his own words should convince the most skeptical about the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills. If you suffer from backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, urinary disorders or any form of kidney ills, use a tested kidney medicine.

An Alexandria citizen tells of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Could you demand more convincing proof of merit?

Mrs. Martha L. Byrne, 209 Wilkes street, Alexandria, Va., says: "I never fail to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills after all they have done for me and you may continue using the endorsement I gave some years ago. I take this remedy once in a while and it keeps me in good health. I was suffering severely from backache. My kidneys were badly disordered and I felt all run down. I was helped so much by the first box of Doan's Kidney Pills that I kept on taking them until I was well."

SAW CHILD CRUSHED

Little Girl Was Crossing Street to Candy Store When Run Down by Car.

Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—While her mother looked on transfixed with horror, five-year-old Amy Elliott, daughter of John Elliott, of Ewing, N. J., was crushed to death Monday night by a Ridge avenue car near Master street. The child had climbed from an automobile where her mother was sitting and had started to cross the street toward a candy store when the car suddenly bore down upon her and rolled her under the front truck.

The father of the dead child and his family came up from their home in New Jersey to visit friends in North Philadelphia. He was on his way home by automobile and stopped at a store on Ridge avenue to make a purchase. While he was in the store the child decided to ge tsome candy and stepped from the automoble directly into the path ofthe car. Her body was so firmly wedged beneath the truck that jacks were required to life the car in order to release it.

When she was extricated the father placed her mangled form in his automobile and made a speedy run to St. Joseph's Hospital. The child, however, had been instantly killed. The doctors at the hospital declared nearly every bone in her body had been broken by the accident. The crew of the car was first arrested and then released when all evidence indicated that the tragedy was unavoidable.

SAVED FROM LYNCHING.

Police And Citiens Intervene to Protect Girl's Ugly Assailant.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 8.—With the intention of taking the law into their own hands, a large mob of foreign-speaking residents of Throop, a small town near this city, early Monday morning broke into borough lockup and dragged Dave Jones, of this city, who was charged with criminal assault on a girl, from his cell and almost lynched him.

He was bruised and bleeding from numerous wounds when rescued by the police and several citizens.

The man met the girl, who is a foreigner, in this city as she alighted from a train, and offered to show her the way to Throop. He took her instead to a cemetery, and there assaulted her.

About midnight the mob congregated and it would have finished its fiendish work but for the interference.

Died After Vaccination.

Trenton, Oct. 8—Raymond E. Clee, 5, and Katherine Flyn, six, whose homes are in Morrisville, across the Delaware river from this city, died of lockjaw in Mercer Hospital here as the result of infection following vaccination.

The children did not guard the wounds on their arms from abrasion and the fatal disease followed when their blood was poisoned through contact with their clothing. As the laws of Pennsylvania require pupils to be vaccinated befort taking up school work, the little ones had their arms treated September 1st.

Rayond Clee had not been enrolled, but the parents had him vaccinated at the time the doctor called on his older brother.

After the wounds had become irritated it is said the clothing rubbed agains tthe arms for two days before they were bandaged and even then no antiseptic was applied.

Burr Harris, a negro, who Monday night confessed to the murder of Mrs. Rebecca Gay, of Los Angeles, Cal., told detectives yesterday that he also killed Mrs. M. Haskins, of Compton, Cal., some time ago, set the Coranado Hotel in Los Angeles on fire, and sent poisoned candy to a woman in Los Angeles.
